DEFINITIONS

License & Permit Bonds: Guarantee that the party seeking the license or permit will comply with applicable laws or regulations. Required by federal, state, or local governments as a condition to granting a license or permit (e.g., contractor license bonds, mortgage broker bonds, collection agency bonds).

Court / Judicial Bonds: Required of a plaintiff or defendant in judicial proceedings to reserve the rights of the opposing litigant or other interested parties (e.g., appeal, supersedeas, injunction bonds), including fiduciary bonds (administrator, trustee, guardian, conservator).

Public Official Bonds: Required by statute for certain holders of public office to protect the public from malfeasance or failure to faithfully perform duties (e.g., notary, county clerk, tax collector, treasurer bonds).

Miscellaneous Bonds: Commercial bonds that do not fit into the above categories, including fuel tax bonds, utility bonds, and other financial guarantees.
